WARNING!!! WHAT YOU'RE ABOUT TO READ
MAY GIVE YOU AN INSTANT TESTIMONY

It's the last quarter of the year, and according the scriptures, God reserves His best for the last moments. If that's the case, the year is not permitted to end until you've received God's best.

This isn't a season to mourn, but a season of harvest. Yes, it's harvest season! I know God has probably promised you lots of things this year, and if perhaps that has not been your experience since the year began, get set for manifestations this time.

In this little piece, I've packaged 3 keys that would aid the manifestation of your expectations in this harvest season. And as the Lord lives, this year will not end until you've received all your heart desires!

The first sickle of harvest we'd be considering is

THANKSGIVING

As we approach the end of the year, it's important that we be cautious in our communication. While many people would have countless reasons to give thanks to God, many others would rather complain about what God has not done.

I know, you may be coerced into believing that you haven't really achieved anything this year, especially when you compare what you've achieved with what your goals for the year are. But hey, if it's God you're waiting for, then He can never be late.

"But do not forget this thing; with the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years is like a day". That is what 2 Pet 3:8 tells us. The psalmist also mentioned that "a thousand years in God's sight is like a day that has not ended". If this is true about God, then why do people give up on God? Why do we often think that it is too late for God to perform everything He has planned to do for us? If a day is like a thousand years to God, imagine what 2 months will be.

If God can put all the achievements that should happen over a thousand years into one day, then He can also make everything you have been waiting for since the year began to happen for you in one day. If you do not believe me, tell me how a prisoner would suddenly become a prime minister in less than 24 hours. That is what happened to Joseph; he continued in faith until the time that his word came. When your word comes, all your struggles will suddenly be turned to testimonies.

Have you been told that there's no way you can get a good job in this current economy? Have you been told that there is no way you can get married, start a business, go to school, have a child, or even raise a family? In John 14:6 Jesus said "I am the way, the truth, and the life". In other words, even though they've confirmed that there is no way out for you, Jesus says you should consider their verdict as a lie; because He is The Truth, and as The Truth, He says there is a way, and there is life in the way.

Proverbs 3:6 tells us how to go through the way; it says, "In all your ways, acknowledge Him, and He will direct your paths". In other words, in all your ways, even where there seems to be no way, acknowledge Him, and He will direct you on which way to go.

So just when your landlord is about to kick you out, acknowledge God for the time you've stayed in that house or for even paying your first rent, and God will show you a way out of that mess. David didn't need to be as strong as Goliath, he only acknowledged the God that gave him victory over wild beasts, and God gave him the head of Goliath.

God will not only create a way for you, He'd also create a life in the way. Just when you think that you can't get something better than what the devil just stole from you, God will surprise you with something more. Who would have thought that Job will eventually have double of everything he lost? Always remember that anytime man says "there's no way", God says "I am the way". All you have to do is to acknowledge Him, and He'd direct your path.

In the mundane world, ingratitude or murmuring may be ignored by God, but He won't spare those who complain in the kingdom. In Malachi 2:1-3, this was clearly stated. Let's see how the scripture puts it:

Malachi 2:

1. And now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.

2. If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3. Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with it.

Notice the words “Priests” and “Commandment” in verse one. If it read kings and priests, it would have implied that those in the mundane world are also affected by that commandment. But no, it’s just for priests, those who represent the kingdom of God.

Numbers 11:1 tells us that “when the people complained, it displeased the LORD: and the LORD heard it; and his anger was kindled; and the fire of the LORD burnt among them, and consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp". And 1 Corinthians 10:10 referred to this scripture when it said, "Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer".

You may begin to wonder why murmuring and ingratitude infuriates God, well that's because gratitude in itself is a mystery that perfects His plan for us. Jesus had every reason to complain when He discovered that Lazarus was dead.

Initially, when they told Him about Lazarus's ailment, He told them that Lazarus wasn't going to die. He even stayed back for 2 days – most likely to seek the face of God concerning Lazarus. But amazingly, before He left, He confirmed to His disciples that Lazarus had died. How do we connect that experience? “This sickness isn’t unto death”, “Lazarus is dead”.

So what if someone bought over the house that God promised you? So what if you didn’t get the job as planned? A change in result doesn’t connote a change in His word. God’s word will still come to pass – the evident results notwithstanding.

Jesus knew how to enforce God’s word even when the evident result says otherwise. He went to the tomb where Lazarus was laid, and gave thanks to God for hearing Him when He prayed. Many times we burden ourselves with the evident results that we underestimate the Almighty God. If God could create an army from dry bones, what can't He do? So Jesus gave thanks, and Lazarus who was dead and stinking came back to life. Hallelujah!

No matter how dead and gone, no matter how late it may seem, thanksgiving can restore life to any situation. Lazarus had reached his very last. He had died and had even been buried for four days. Martha said "by now he'd be stinking"; his matter had already been concluded. But Jesus made them understand that though he may have reached his last, but there is still life in the last. And as He gave thanks to God, Lazarus who had reached his very last received life.

Don't tell me "the year has ended already, so there's nothing more that could happen". No matter what you do, the two months remaining in 2019 cannot be moved to 2020. And that means we're still very much in 2019. And if that's the case, the "last days" is everybody's day. In case you didn't consider yourself qualified for blessings since the year began, congratulations, because you've reached a time when you can be sure.

God still gives His best, even at the last moments. Jesus needed to feed 5000 people, and all they could find were 5 loaves of bread and two fishes. That was the last in the whole area. But Jesus knew what to do to bring life out of the last. As He thanked God for the last, enough was provided to feed over 5000 people, even with leftovers. God can still make something tangible out of this last quarter of the year for you. All you have to do is what Jesus did; thank Him for the last, and experience life from what seems to be last.

So engage in thanksgiving to God, and try not to generalize your thanksgiving. Count your blessings and thank God for them one-by-one. Thank God for every single client He has given you this year, thank God for every network He has created for you, thank God for every sickness He delivered you from, thank Him for every wrong relationship He saved you from. Thank Him for every moment He delivered you from trouble. Generalizing your appreciation to God may not give you access to this last quarter's blessings.

I KNOW YOU'VE PROBABLY PRAYED ALL YEAR, BUT YOU MUST UNDERSTAND THAT THANKSGIVING SECURES ANSWERS TO PRAYERS

After you've prayed to God about a need, never forget to thank Him for meeting that need, even if He hasn't. Prayer may bring the first supply, but thanksgiving brings the rest. Ten lepers went to Jesus for healing just as we go to God in prayers; the moment he saw them, He told them to go and show themselves to the priests. While they were on their way, they all noticed that their leprosy had been cleansed, even though there were still scars.

But out of 10 of them, only one returned to Jesus to give thanks for how much his prayer had done. Surprisingly, Jesus expected that the other nine lepers would also come back, but they didn't. You know the rest of the story, the one that came back was made perfectly whole.

Jesus was faced with a responsibility to feed over 5 thousand people. His disciples suggested that He let them go to their various houses to feed. But the bible tells us that Jesus knew what He would do.

I perceive that while they were making their suggestions, Jesus was communicating with God in prayers. Because all of a sudden, a little boy appeared with 5 loaves of bread and 2 fishes. If you can see a sign that your prayer has been answered, no matter how little, then give God thanks. So Jesus took the first supply of bread and fish and thanked God for them. You know the rest of the story; over 5000 people were fed, and 12 baskets were even left over.

Oftentimes, what God releases first is often a test to see if you still need the rest. Pray for the first, but never forget to thank God when it arrives. Many of us worry about the rest when we should be thanking God for the first that He has done.

The experience of the 10 lepers shows that those who thank God for the first never need to make supplications for the rest. Don't worry about being made whole, if you've been cleansed, then thank God for it. The One who makes whole knows what to do when He sees your thanksgiving for the cleansing.

In Jeremiah chapter 30, God had done great wonders with His people, He had taken them from one land to another without any harm. But in verse 19, He made it clear to them that He'd neither multiply nor glorify them until they thanked Him for what He had done. Let's see how the scripture puts it:

Jeremiah 30:19:

And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

Could it be that the glory you've been praying for is just waiting for your thanksgiving? This is clear enough, don't expect multiplication from God without thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving isn't just a commandment from God, it's also His will. 1 Thess 5:18 says we should give thanks in all things because it's the will of God. Amazingly, Heb 10:36 tells us that once we complete the will of God, we will receive the promise. Complains don't release the promise, only thanksgiving can. No matter what God has promised you, if you won't lay it to heart to thank Him for the past, you won't receive that promise.

PERHAPS YOU'RE WONDERING, "WHAT AM I THANKING GOD FOR?"...

Let me show you a few things to thank God for.

THANK GOD FOR ALL HIS BENEFITS IN YOUR LIFE

Psalm 103:

2. Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

3. Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

4. Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;

5. Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

Imagine how many times God has forgiven you even without asking Him. Oftentimes we tend to rate the goodness of God based on the material evidences around us, but we forget that the reason why we've not been consumed by the wickedness of this world is because of the Lord's mercies.

Mercy isn't just what you get when you sin, it's a system that God designed to sustain us on the earth. With the rate of evil in the world today, the earth should not accommodate a person for more than 24 hours; so for every 24 hours you successfully complete, God deserves thanksgiving. So what if you didn't eat yesterday? Aren't you alive today?

Count how many times God has healed you from sicknesses, or pain and discomfort this year. Even if it was medicine you used, it was God who made it work. There are many people who took medicine and still died.

You may not have any material thing to thank God for, but the sustenance of your life is more than enough reason to give thanks. If you still have life, then it means there's still hope for glory.

THANK GOD FOR THINGS YET NOT SEEN

John 11:

41. Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42. And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43. And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44. And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

This is a mystery the mundane world does not understand. We don't only thank God for what He has done, we also thank Him for the things we expect.

Jesus understood this principle. He had prayed for Lazarus and He believed that God heard Him when He prayed. Surprisingly, Lazarus had died and was already buried before He got there. But hey, He had prayed, and He believed that God answered Him, and not even death could change the answer.

At this point, many believers would choose to complain. "After all my prayers, after all my sacrifices, after all my fasting, after all this and that, he still died, God why?". But no, not Jesus, He knew how to harvest answers - the prevailing circumstance notwithstanding. So He gave thanks for that which He was actually expecting, and the rest is history. Lazarus who was dead and stinking, came back to life.

Didn't the bible say we should be anxious for nothing, but handle all things with prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving - making our requests known to God? Just anything can happen after prayer and supplication, including the opposite of what you prayed for, but when you engage thanksgiving, your expected result would manifest. Hallelujah!

DECLARE YOUR PRESENCE THROUGH THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving is another medium through which your presence is approved. In those days when we go to school, our teachers usually took daily attendance by marking their register. Even though we had registered for the class, they still needed to renew their attendance daily. Any day you miss class, it affects your gross point.

The same way, God has called you and registered your name in the book of life, don't you know you must appear before Him daily to mark attendance?

Those days we use to enter the school gate by signing in on a sheet of paper or directly into the computer so that when anybody comes to look for us, they'd know we are present, but you enter Heaven's gate with thanksgiving, and it qualifies you for the blessings that God has prepared for that day.

Many people feel very reluctant to even say "thank you Lord", and that's the reason why they miss certain blessings. I've seen where people get really disappointed; they told them to come tomorrow for the money, job or anything. They woke up very excited, forgetting to mark attendance for that day, so they missed the blessing. This may sound simple, but it's true.

God loads us with benefits daily, but these benefits are in His presence, and you need to sign in to receive your own. Every teacher naturally prepares something new to teach his students, but if a student is not in class, how can he benefit from the lesson?

Please understanding this; you're not doing God a favour by thanking Him, you're doing yourself a favour. The reason why some people would never get poor is because they're too busy thanking God for what he has done.

The Second sickle of harvest we'd be considering is

PRAISE

Jer 30:19 didn't only talk about thanksgiving, it also mentioned praise. As a matter of scripture, a combination of these two forces would put you in command of situations.

I've come to discover that God doesn't need to update His systems; if a system ever worked for Him, then be sure it will work again. Whatever worked for God will always work for Him.

For instance, we saw how He delivered the people of Israel from Egypt through the blood of the covenant. In Zechariah chapter 9, when the people had a prison-like situation, He told them to refer to what He did in Egypt. Let's see how the scripture puts it:

Zechariah 9:

11. As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12. Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to day do I declare that I will render double unto thee;

Back in Egypt, Pharaoh resisted every attack that Moses used against him and Egypt, but the moment the blood was engaged, Pharaoh released them in a hurry. With that in mind, He quickly referred the people in Zechariah to that mystery. Anytime you find yourself in a prison-like situation, you can trust the blood of Jesus to bail you out.

Now back to praise, in 2 Chro 20, the bible tells us how 3 nations gathered against Judah. When they consulted with God, God hinted them on what to do. Let's see how the scriptures explained what they did:

2 Chronicles 20:

21. And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, and that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the LORD; for his mercy endureth for ever.

22. And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten.

Isn't this amazing? Praise became their spears, arrows and swords. Perhaps you've tried all the weapons of war you know how to use, maybe it's time to use praise. When you get to a crossroad and nothing else seems to work, praise will work. In Joel 3, when the people were challenged, God referred them to this mystery. Let's read how the scripture puts it:

Joel 3:

12. Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about. 13. Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great.

Let's analyze a few words from those verses:

...LET THE HEATHEN BE AWAKENED

In other words, awake from your slumber. Don't allow your breakthrough to slip away when you have a mystery that can give you the breakthrough you need.

The bible says "a son that sleeps in time of harvest causes shame to his parents". In this case, you'd be causing shame to God if you allow your breakthrough sleep away through your ignorance.

...COME UP TO THE VALLEY OF JEHOSEPHAT

This is a reference to what happened with Jehoshaphat when 3 nations gathered against him. Remember that he appointed singers to praise the beauty of God's holiness.

...FOR THERE WILL I SIT TO JUDGE

The bible tells us that God is enthroned by the praises of His people. Every time you stand to praise Him, He sits on His throne to proclaim judgement in your favour. If you want to get God to judge a matter on your behalf, praise is what to engage.

...PUT YE IN THE SICKLE, FOR THE HARVEST IS RIPE

Engage praise, the same mystery that Jehoshaphat engaged. The harvest is ripe, but the sickle of harvest is praise. No matter how much you complain, harvest is only possible with praise. The later end of 2 Chronicles 20 is that the people of Judah gathered all the spoils from the 3 nations. Isn't that harvest? With the blood, they gathered treasures from one nation, but with praise, they gathered treasures from 3 nations. No matter how much you pray, you'd never compare the returns to what praise will bring.

In Psalms 67, the bible gives us a strategy to yield increases. It says;

Psalms 67:

5. Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.

6. Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us.

7. God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

If it's increase you want, then praise Him.

LET ME SHOW YOU A FEW THINGS THAT PRAISE CAN DO:

1. IT INCREASES YOUR SPEED AND ACCURACY

Your plans can still come to pass, and even if the time remaining is short, praise can increase your speed. It doesn't matter how much time you've lost, when God multiplies your speed, you'd be able to make up for lost times. Habakkuk clearly understood this principle; let's read what he said:

Hab 3:

17. Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:

18. Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

19. The LORD God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds' feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

Did you notice "He will make my feet like hinds' feet" in verse 19? Making our feet like hind's feet means He will equip us with what we need to bring us through the rough patch. It is only the hind that can climb rocky terrains. This is because it has the right feet to climb. This literally means that God, through praise, equips us with unique abilities and skills to help us through our high places.

2. IT TRIVIALIZES IMPOSSIBLE CASES

The wall of Jericho was said to have a horse race track on it. Chariots could literally comfortably race on it. If I'm to compare to a regular race track, it would be a 3-lane automobile road. Just imagine the wideness and thickness of that fence.

Guess what? It was built in disfavour of the children of Israel. God had given Jericho to the children of Israel for a possession, but they were faced with this wall that was "impossible" to bring down. But not for long, let's see the strategy that God gave them to bring down the wall:

Joshua 6:

2 Then the Lord said to Joshua, "See, I have delivered Jericho into your hands, along with its king and its fighting men.

3 March around the city once with all the armed men. Do this for six days.

4 Have seven priests carry trumpets of rams' horns in front of the ark. On the seventh day, march around the city seven times, with the priests blowing the trumpets.

5 When you hear them sound a long blast on the trumpets, have the whole army give a loud shout; then the wall of the city will collapse and the army will go up, everyone straight in."

20 When the trumpets sounded, the army shouted, and at the sound of the trumpet, when the men gave a loud shout, the wall collapsed; so everyone charged straight in, and they took the city.

Hallelujah! The wall collapsed as they shouted in Praise to God. That's what you should do when you're faced with an impossible case, shout in Praise to your God.

The Third sickle of harvest we'd be considering is

CONFIDENCE IN GOD

If what you need is peace, then let your mind stay on God. In Isaiah 26:3, the bible says "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee".

When challenges are raging and it feels like they'd cut you off from existence, let your mind stay on Him. When your salary won't be sufficient for you, yet you have to cater for a whole family, let your mind stay on Him. They may have given you a quit notice, and it feels like there's nowhere else to go, let your mind stay on Him. The truth is, if there's anything

God desires to do, it's to give you perfect peace, but that can only happen if your mind stays on Him.

Habakkuk understood this principle when he said, "Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls. Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation. The LORD God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds' feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places".

It's amazing how those who let their mind stay on God come out victoriously from challenges. Don't give up hope just because you don't have the resources; rather, keep your hope alive by celebrating the promises of God. Like Abraham, never draw strength from resources, draw strength from His promises. Abraham staggered not at the promise of God, but was strong in faith, giving glory to God.

IF YOU ALLOW GOD TO OCCUPY YOUR MIND, NOTHING ELSE WOULD MATTER

If you want to gain victory, let God be part of your winning strategy. This is because when skill fails, God will never fail. Work with your skill, but also work with God to ensure that you don't lose.

When Elijah became worried about how perverse the people of Israel had become, God sent him to anoint Hazael and Jehu as king, and finally told him to anoint Elisha as prophet in his stead. He further said that "anyone who escaped the judgment of Hazael won't escape the judgment of Jehu. And if they escape the judgment of Jehu, they won't escape the judgment of Elisha".

Are you confident that you'd still get that job even when your qualifications fail you? Do you have an assurance your business will blossom even when all that you've tried didn't work? Do you have a system that automatically introduces God to the affairs of your life? Have you failed, knowing that God didn't back you up?

If I can't get a job with my skills, then I'd get a job with my God. You just need to have a system that keeps you going forward against all odds. The truth is, if you want a failure-proof kind of life, then God has to be in the equation. And that cannot be possible without absolute confidence in Him.

God is neither slow nor fast; you can't measure His speed. Actually, He controls the forces behind time and speed. Just when you think that it's too late to get certain things done, God says "I'm ageless and timeless, it's never too late with Me".

Lazarus was dead and buried for 4 days, Martha even remarked that he'd already be stinking at that time; but here was Jesus, He told her about a key that time and speed respects. "If you believe, you shall see the glory of God". She believed, and Lazarus that was dead came back to life. Hallelujah!

In Luke 1:45, the bible says, "Blessed is she that believes, for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord". Martha believed, God performed, and the dead came back to life. Moses believed, God performed, and the sea divided. Joshua believed, God performed, and the wall of Jericho fell down flat. Abraham believed, God performed, and Sarah gave birth to Isaac at age 90.

When God speaks to you, don't worry about the time it will be fulfilled; rather, develop your faith to enforce the manifestation of what He has said to you. Even in the grave, faith can still bring to pass whatever God has said to you.

NO FORCE IS PERMITTED TO FINISH WHAT FAITH HAS NOT FINISHED. MAN MAY SAY
"THAT'S ALL", BUT IF YOUR FAITH SAYS
OTHERWISE, THEN CONTINUE!

Alright, that's it for this book, and I trust that you've been blessed. My prayer is that the encounters you've had in this little piece will be a testimony in your mouth forever!

In the name of Jesus, the next 35 days of your life is declared days of HARVEST OF TESTIMONIES!

You'd be harvesting testimonies just as a farmer harvests cocoa!

Wherever you've been put to shame before now, my God will get you praise and fame!

Perhaps they've despised you at your work place, within these 35 days, everyone who has despised you will join in celebrating your praise and fame!
