JUST BEFORE WE BEGIN...

Never mind, let's begin!

WARNING!!! WHAT YOU'RE ABOUT TO READ
MAY GIVE YOU AN INSTANT TESTIMONY

According to scriptures, our prosperity isn't just a priority in God's heart, it's also the pride of God. Ps 35:27 says, "Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favour my righteous cause: yea, let them say continually, Let the LORD be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant". Did you see that? If He takes pleasure in our prosperity, then our prosperity is His pride. We rob God of His pride when we are poor.

In 3 John 1:2, God unveils the priority of prosperity when He said, "Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth". After the salvation of your soul, your prosperity is next in God's heart. Poverty is a message that alters God's wish for a believer. If you are poor, then you're not fulfilling the wishes of your maker.

The earth and everything in it belongs to God. Heaven is literally plated with gold. If you're not prosperous as a child of God, you won't be able to prove that God is true, and that the riches of the earth belong to Him.

Zech 1:17 tells us that God's cities shall be built through prosperity. Prosperity isn't just about having money; it's about having abundance of wealth. The synonym for prosperity is affluence; and affluence means abundance of wealth. 2 Cor 9:8 tells us that God is able to make all grace abound toward us, that we always have sufficiency in all things and abundance for every good works. This literally means that if your prosperity is only sufficient for your family, then you're poor – according to God's standard. We measure kingdom prosperity by the abundance of our good works.

Isaiah 60:22 says “A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation. I the Lord will hasten it in his time”. This means that if your prosperity does not cater for a minimum of 1000 people, then you're poor. Come to think of it, if you've crossed 12 years old, then it will be condescending to call you little, you're small.

But the challenge is, if you're small, then your prosperity should cater for a strong nation. If a small one caters for a strong nation, what territory would an adult cater for? Attempting to answer that question alone should stair-up a fire within you.

Greater is he that is in you than he that is in the world. We carry something inside us that can greatly influence the world, not just our country. I want to believe that those who are considered small are the dispensation that didn't have the opportunity to receive the Holy Spirit. For instance, at some point in Isaac's life, he was mightier than an entire nation. When the king sent him out of their nation, he went to establish his own nation.

If Isaac could command resources that was more than what an entire nation had – without the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, then we should command resources that is greater than what the world carries by the Spirit.

That's what 1 John 4:4 meant by "Greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world".

NOW THAT WE'VE KNOWN THE DEPTH AT WHICH GOD DESIRES THAT WE PROSPER, WOULD YOU LIKE TO KNOW THE PROVISION HE HAS MADE FOR OUR PROSPERITY?

I shouldn't be asking that kind of question, right?

His provision is lurked within different dimensions of wealth. Let me share 3 of them with you:

TRANSACTIONAL WEALTH

This is wealth gathered through exchange of products and services. This kind of wealth accumulates based on your client-base. Don't expect to be wealthy here if you're not transacting anything.

Transactions can be in form of your job – rendering your skills to a company and earning a salary at the end of the month. It can also be a business where you render your services or sell your products for a fee. If you're not providing a service, selling a product or earning a salary, you'd be poor in this dimension.

Quickly, let me show you 3 laws that govern TRANSACTIONAL WEALTH:

1. THE LAW OF VALUE

If you want to enjoy transactional wealth, then you must be valuable. Value is a measure of your usefulness. If you have anything that serves as a solution to someone else, then you're valuable (e.g shoe shining, accountability, leadership, changing diapers, etc). Anything you do that adds value to another person makes you a valuable person.

If there is nothing about your life that people considers a solution, then you have a problem. Contact me after reading this book for special counselling. If you can sing and people consider your songs inspiring, then you're valuable. If you can drive people from one destination to another, then you're valuable.

Jesus could teach at age 12, Joseph could take care of his father's sheep, Daniel could interpret dreams. What value is your life adding or capable of adding? You don't have to know everything, just know something that can get people out of trouble.

The second law that governs Transactional Wealth is:

2. THE LAW OF PRODUCTIVITY

This is where you turn your values into products and services. People may applaud your values, but they only reward your productivity. For instance, how many church choristers have been nominated for Grammy? They won't be known so long as all they engage is the first law. But if they master their songs and put them in a CD for sale, people will pay for it. The more you sell, the more money you make.

I write daily devotionals for free, and I've been doing that for a long time. But guess what? I didn't get a pay for it. But when I mastered my writing and rendered writing services, people began to pay me.

Today, I run a mentorship course on writing. People contact me from far and near to write and edit their books for them. If I didn't introduce writing services, people will still be clapping for me, and I'd probably be begging to eat. What's the use of a clap if it can't put food on my table? All those claps may be satiating for a moment, but you'd eventually get hungry for real food. And when that happens, you'd face reality.

My friends love my cooking. Some of them would like to visit me just to eat my food. When I discovered this, I started a cooking service. And guess what? People pay for it.

Remember that a little one shall take a thousand, and a small one a strong nation. It is your product and services that you'd use to impact a thousand people, or even a strong nation. If you can't count a thousand people who patronize you, then you have work to do.

David could defend his father's sheep, he was valuable. He could kill wild beasts - just to protect the sheep. But he advanced his value into a service when he volunteered to face Goliath. Nobody paid him a dime when he protected animals, but when he advanced, the king promised him a wife and treasures.

The two palace servants must have applauded Joseph in the prison for his ability to interpret dreams, but it turned into a service the moment he interpreted the king's dream.

I sensed an urgency in the spirit. They were going to kill Daniel and all the magicians because none of them could interpret the king's dream. If Daniel didn't turn his values into a service at that point, he would have died for free. Some people are busy looking for jobs when what they should be doing is turning their values into products and services. The service you're stabbing may be what is delaying your prosperity.

The third law that governs Transactional Wealth is:

3. THE LAW OF EXCHANGE

This has to do with advertising your products or services. Turn your values into products and services all you want, but if nobody knows about you, you'd still be poor.

God marketed Jesus. After John baptized Him, heaven opened and a voice descended saying, "this is my beloved son, in whom I am well pleased". Imagine if the president of a nation does a public broadcast declaring that he is pleased with your services. What do you think will happen to you the next minute? I know, you'd never run out of business again.

Don't hesitate to tell people about what you do. The more awareness you create, the more you're likely going to sell and command prosperity. Your social media platforms should be for selling, not for playing. Stop posting selfies, post products and services. Who's paying you for all those selfies you post? Yes, you'd attract "likes", but who the "like" help?

Alright, that's it for Transactional Wealth. Let's see the second dimension of wealth. Ready?

TRANSFORMATIONAL WEALTH

This is the wealth you gather through your investment on people over time. For some years now, I've invested my time to being a blessing to people – transforming their lives by the things I share. They may not give me a dime for my services, they may not even sow any form of seed in my life, but this dimension of wealth has a way of getting the returns back to me.

When Jesus died for the world, many people still hated him. But today, many of those who hated Him now follow Him. This is about serving humanity; you can't sow and not reap what you sow.

This is why we shouldn't get agitated over the wealth of some pastors who are genuinely called by God. They've served, and God is paying them. The only challenge with this dimension of wealth is that it comes over a period of time, and sometimes it may not come during your lifetime, it would rather meet your children.

The church today is enjoying the investment of our fathers of faith. At some point they called Christians "church rats". If a woman desired to marry a pastor back then, they'd check to see if she's mentally unstable. But today, it's the pride of most parents to give their daughters to a pastor. And that's because the returns of the investments of our fathers of faith have landed in the church.

You must be willing to invest your resources in impacting lives. Somebody recently sent me a message saying “Sir, thank you for all you do, you’re a blessing to the body of Christ”. There is no day that I don’t receive messages like that. Honestly, even if I don’t want to be rich, it’s too late.

Before now, when I post adverts about my businesses, nobody contacts me to even make enquiry. But today, the story has changed. Even if I post it late, they’d still contact me. Some of them humorously apologize for contacting me late. Yes, they apologize and still pay. Since I started launching e-books, I’ve never sold copies as I did this year. Somebody called me and even paid forward for 10 people. If that benevolence was done for hard copies, it's understandable, but not for e-books.

This isn't because I'm good at what I do, but much more because I've served, and the universe pays back whoever serves it. This is the dimension pastors are mostly found; they serve, and God pays them. I pity pastors who receive a calling and immediately begin to look for a property to start a church - all in the name of collecting tithes and offerings. When God calls you, don't look for a building first, look for platforms for service instead.

That said, engage in transactional wealth, but also engage in transformational wealth.

I once taught on the 4 phases that every believer must live through:

- The learning phase
- The service phase
- The earning phase
- The resting phase

If you skip the service phase, no matter how much you earn, you'd never get to the resting phase. Service does not only appropriate a suitable earning for you, it also ensures you enjoy a restful end.

HERE IS SOMETHING YOU SHOULD TAKE VERY SERIOUSLY...

While you invest in people, also invest in the advancement of God's kingdom. The more your service impacts God's kingdom, the more your life is transformed. Personal struggles are eliminated when kingdom service takes priority in our hearts. Matt 6:33 makes it clear that if you seek God's kingdom first, every other thing would be added to you.

If you have to create a list and budget for everything you need in your life, you'd discover that even your lifetime may not be enough to acquire all of them. So instead of pursuing those things, wouldn't it be better to just pursue God and let God command those things to pursue you?

I remember when I moved out of my uncle's house to live alone in a rented apartment. The only thing I had in the house was the curtain. No bed, no Television, no refrigerator, No kitchen utensil, no nothing.

Despite the absence of those things, I knew my service to God will speak for me. Guess what? The first night, someone volunteered to give me everything I needed for that house.

Rug, Bed, Refrigerator, Television, Cooker, kitchen utensils, Bedsheets, Chair, Table, "everything was provided". If I had to rely on my salary, I would have worked for years before I would have bought all of those things.

The good thing about serving the interest of God's kingdom is that it also prospers your soul. Remember that God wishes that you prosper as your soul prospers. The devil has cheated many believers through the ignorance of this dimension. He tricks them to pursue things and ignore the growth of their soul. Apostle Joshua Selman taught a message titled "The Mystery of Time and Money", I recommend you listen to it.

It's amazing how people pursue money and ignore spiritual growth. The devil has scrutinized the life of man and discovered that the only thing that can steal a man's time is the pursuit of money. A man can still go to church and serve God even while he is sick, but he'd rather go to work when he's broke.

Don't be surprised by the hardness you see in the economy, it's the devil's strategy to withdraw the time you invest in serving the interest of God's kingdom. Why is it that it was when your salary was increased that recession also set in? Why is it that the need for money never ends around most people? Even when they seem to hit a jackpot, something happens that will derail them back to the pursuit of money.

It's really not about those things, it's a battle for time. It takes time to know and serve God, but you won't get that time if you keep allowing the devil determine what time should be allocated to God. Many people only go to church when things are right. You'd be amazed to know that the reason why some folks didn't attend service last Sunday was because they didn't have offering. See how the need for money derails the average believer.

A woman called me from France and was sobbing seriously. She complained that her marriage was already a disaster and that she was about to file for a divorce. Her husband used to be a healing evangelist - pastoring his own church. People came to him for all kinds of miracles, and God used him greatly. But debt issue arose, and he had to source for funds to clear debts. Unfortunately, the search led him astray; he started smoking, drinking and frolicking with women. He lost his church, almost lost his soul and family, all because he ignored the most vital part of his life, his time with God. But God is merciful. I prayed with her, and in 7 days, her husband repented and her home was restored.

I've received diverse calls and messages from challenged individuals - most of which are marital challenges. After diagnosing the cause of their challenges, it narrows down to this same mystery - the battle for time.

In this kingdom, we don't just pursue things, we pursue God, while God adds those things to us. The more you pursue things, the farther you get from God.

Many people are too transactional when it comes to kingdom wealth. Don't be a part of them. That's the mundane way of getting wealth. In this kingdom, your transactional wealth is for service. I can know a Christian who has derailed from kingdom advancement by his apathy to give God time. If the things you pursue does not lead you back to the kingdom, then you've gone astray. I want to be very rich, but for the kingdom. The irony is, being rich for the kingdom doesn't reduce your resources; rather, it increases them. What you give into the kingdom would be nothing compared to what you'd get.

SOVEREIGN WEALTH

This is the third dimension of wealth and it is imparted upon you by God or an anointed vessel. The moment Samuel anointed Saul, people began to give him favours. God gave Solomon wealth in the dream, and suddenly, he became super wealthy. Many people will live all their life in poverty if they don't gain access to this dimension of wealth.

This wealth is also given by prophecy. 1 Tim 4:14 says "neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy".

Paul told Timothy to war a good warfare with the prophecy that was spoken towards him.

One of the things that God told me regarding this year is that He'd get me praise and fame. I've warred with that prophecy since the year began and it has indeed been a year of praise and fame for me.

For instance, I started the year with 5000 friends on my Facebook profile, but between March and August, God has given me a personal Facebook page with over 60,000 followers. Today, there's literally no place I go to that I won't encounter someone that knows me. If that is not praise and fame, then what is it?

I accompanied a prominent personality to a birthday party which was strictly by invitation. The invited guests weren't so much, but they were mostly celebrities. Even the table I sat was with celebrities I've watched over and over again on YouTube. I honestly thought that I'd just hide behind the man I accompanied there, but to my amazement, I had followers there too, and they considered it a privilege to meet me. Please, if this is not praise and fame, what is it?

I've made more profit this year than the previous. My e-books have sold in volumes they have never sold. I think I now receive more international calls on a daily basis. There was a time in my life when I'd be super excited when an international call comes into my phone, but it has become a regular thing now.

Remember that Lot only followed Abraham who had a prophecy over his life, and the bible says Lot was blessed with Abraham. If Paul told Timothy to war with prophecies, then we cannot neglect the place of prophecies for unbroken prosperity. As a matter of scriptures, this is the crux of unbroken prosperity. In Joshua 1:8, Moses told Joshua to do what the book of the law says, and he'd make his ways prosperous.

I TRUST YOU'VE BEEN REALLY BLESSED BY THIS LITTLE PIECE. HOWEVER, BEFORE YOU HIT THE CLOSE BUTTON, I'D LIKE YOU TO ENGAGE THE PRAYER POINTS BELOW FOR A DEFINITE TURN AROUND IN YOUR FINANCES

ARE YOU READY TO PRAY?

In 1 Timothy 4: 4, the bible says, "For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving. For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer". Get set, as you pray right now, whatever has been rejecting your prosperity will let you go!

PRAYER 1:

2 Timothy 1: 14. That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

Father, in the name of Jesus, everything of value you have given to me, keep them by the Holy Ghost.

PRAYER 2:

John 19:19. And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. 20. This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin. 21. Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. 22. Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

Father, send men of authority over my life that their words for my progress becomes law to my opposition.

PRAYER 3:

John 7: 15. And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned? 16. Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me. 17. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

Father, as I submit to your will for my life, give me practical knowledge to things I don't know.

PRAYER 4:

Philip and the other disciples were deliberating on how to feed the 5000 people, meanwhile, Jesus already knew what He would do.

Father, while people are wasting time and energy thinking of a solution or strategy for advancement, grant me wisdom to always know what to do.

PRAYER 5:

Matt 3:17: And lo a voice from heaven, saying, this is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

Father, just as you advertised Jesus, send that voice that will compel people to hear and patronize me.
